

Dear Knox Family in Christ,

November is my favorite month for homely pursuits. I like the “safe-and-secure” feeling of accomplishment that comes after Deb’s garden is put to bed, the leaves are raked, the squirrels are in their nests, the firewood is stacked and the freezer is stocked with my favorite meats and vegetables. These annual activities bring with them a growing sense of gratitude as I look forward to Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. None of these tasks get done without the willing work and provision of my family—but these labors are truly labors of love.

November is also a time when I am more keenly aware and grateful for all that makes Knox a vibrant household of faith. In our worship and fellowship, our teaching and learning, our giving and serving—I see Knox being built up into a spiritual house where each member belongs and is valued and loved for who they are. I take great joy in being able to serve and provide for such a household as this. It makes me feel “safe-and-secure” to experience the goodness of our Lord who has promised to be the Leader of this household: Knox—for today, tomorrow and always.

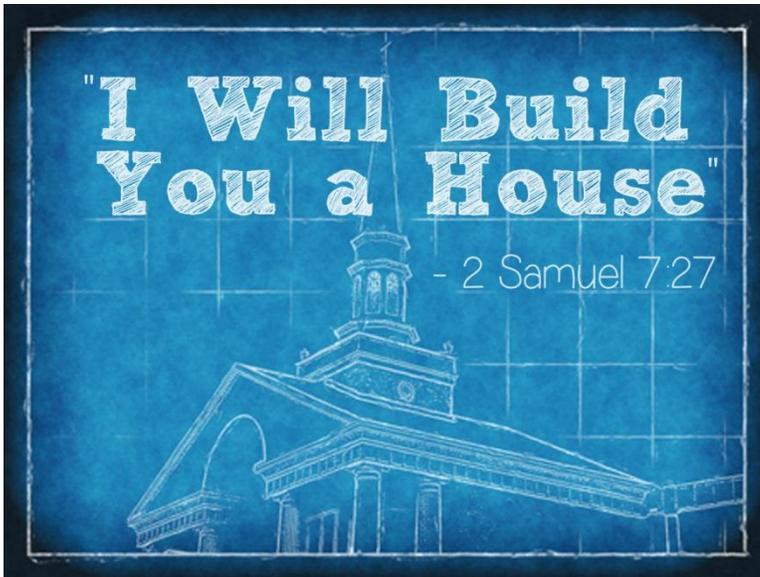

Giving any way I can in support of my family is a privilege and joy for me. I take great comfort and satisfaction in being able to help meet the needs of my household. The same feelings hold true for my church family. It is a great privilege to be able to contribute to the life and work of our congregation because here I can see a little more clearly the coming of that Kingdom we pray for each time we say the Lord’s Prayer. I see a house where children are cherished, where seniors are honored, where strangers are welcomed, where hurting finds healing, brokenness mending, loneliness friendship and lost stories are found. In the members of this household, I can see the face of Christ.

November 23 is Thanksgiving Sunday. We’ll adorn our Lord’s dinner table with the fruits of the harvest. We’ll get to sing, “All is safely gathered in, ere the winter’s storms begin” (just like the squirrels would—if they could—as they bury their nuts in Deb’s garden). More importantly, as thankful people whose “wants have been supplied”, we’ll find comfort and joy in providing for our spiritual household with our pledged support for the coming year. It is altogether right and true that no pledged offering is too insignificant to count. Only by being “gathered together” can we become the household of God, the family of Christ.

Friends--faithfulness begets fruitfulness. And generosity brings forth abundance. Take comfort this harvest season feeling “safe-and-secure” in Jesus. As beloved members of His family, let’s joyfully provide the means for our ministry as the spiritual household we are.

With gratitude,
Clinton

Knox Stewardship Sermon Series:

Sunday November 9: "On Tents and Temples"
After King David won the Kingdom and ruled from his palace of cedar in Jerusalem, he decided he would build a house for God. But God had other plans in mind... "Would you build me a house to dwell in?" God spoke through his prophet Nathan. "I have been with you wherever you went. I will make you a house," says the Lord. The House that God promised was no palace of cedar but the offspring of David, fulfilled 1000 years later in the birth of Jesus. Come learn how God is still building His people into the household of faith through the living presence of Jesus: Son of David and Son of God.

Scriptures:

2 Samuel 7: 1-14a

Ephesians 2: 19-22

Sunday November 16: "God's Householders"

The apostle Paul had many ways of describing the first generation of Christians. He used the metaphor of the Body in Romans 12, and in his letter to Timothy, he described Christ's followers like furnishings within a great house. Come claim your unique gifts for ministry and rejoice in how God has made you a member of His household through prayer, faith and Spirit.

Scriptures:

Psalms 84: 1-4

2 Timothy 2: 20-21

Romans 12: 6-13

Thanksgiving Sunday November 23: "Built into a Spiritual House"

After David's death, his son Solomon built a Temple for God to dwell in. Yet that Temple (like everything else in this life) had a beginning and an end. In marvelous contrast, Jesus Christ is building us as living stones into a spiritual house that will endure throughout eternity. Our fellowship here on earth has eternal consequences as we seek to love one another as He loved us, make disciples and go out into all the world with the message of the Gospel.

On Thanksgiving Sunday, you will have the opportunity to pledge your financial support to the mission and ministry of the church for 2015. Your pledged support is a tangible expression of your faith in God and will determine the scope and measure of our ministries in the coming year.

Scriptures:

1 Kings 6: 1-2, 11-14

1 Peter 2: 4-5, 10

Christmas Card Fund

Instead of sending Christmas cards this year, Knox members are invited to join a longstanding tradition by offering Christmas greetings to the entire congregation while making a donation to Knox mission projects at the same time! A large Christmas card will be in the Commons area on the mission Table. Make checks payable to Knox Presbyterian Church, marking the memo section "Christmas Card Fund - your mission choice." You may also contribute online at knoxpres.org, please select Christmas Card Fund.

Mission projects to designate include Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry, Hased House, The Scott Moreau Fund, The Lehman Foundation Fund, Pastors Discretionary Fund and The Anne Sherren Scholarship Fund. You set the amount of your donation and either place it in the offering plate or give it to our Financial Secretary. Those signing by December 7 will be acknowledged in the Christmas Eve bulletin. Donations are accepted immediately but the card will be posted November 23 until New Year's Day.

Can you think of an easier way to send over 500 Christmas Cards? Contact Anne Sherren at 630-615-4325 with questions.

As a family you can pack shoe boxes with gifts for a child to open as their only Christmas present this year. Or you can donate the following items and our middle school children of Knox will assemble them into shoe boxes for you. All donations (completed shoe boxes or individual items) must be received by November 19! Please drop them off in the gift wrapped boxes located in the Commons or bring them to the Wednesday Night youth programs by November 19. Desired items can include:

shoe boxes	toys	small stuffed animals	school supplies
socks	hats	t-shirts	hair bands
non-liquid hygiene items (toothbrushes, combs, washcloths, soap)

Pick up a brochure in the Commons area and plan to join us in this important mission! Please direct questions to Ginny Van Blaricom (630-904-5354) or gvanb5@aol.com. Thank you!!

Prison Ministry Christmas Card Project - 2014

Every year, hundreds of volunteers make it possible for Companions Journeying Together to send thousands of Christmas cards to those confined in prisons, juvenile and other facilities. Will you help again this year by providing them with cards?

- Please sign your name and write a simple message...but do not seal or put a stamp on the envelope.
- Postage stamps are needed and should be enclosed separately. Also appreciated are books or sheets of "forever" stamps to help with mailings.
- Remember we cannot send any cards that have anything glued or taped on them or on the envelopes. That includes purchased cards that have pretty little things glued on them, stickers or tape.
- We will gather, along with other churches, to address the cards on Tuesday, Nov 18 at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 1500 Brookdale Rd, Naperville, from 9 am to noon.

Place your donations by/on Sunday, November 16 in the box wrapped like a present on the Mission table near the Coffee Bar. For questions, contact Mary Ellen Neumeister 630-357-8328, meansmimi@aol.com.

Our intention is to let the imprisoned know that someone is thinking about them at a time when they can feel so alone. Often, this is their only card and makes a big difference as evidenced by the thank you notes below:

"Thank you so much for the Christmas cards you sent which were enclosed in our Christmas gift bag. I'm in the choir. We sang to the inmates as they went to receive their gifts from our warden. I saw how excited many people were to be getting a card. Many here do not get mail from home. Thank you for taking the time to even sign cards and even write simple messages. Your simple gesture made very many people's Christmas here. May God bless and keep you." Brenda

Loaves & Fishes

The next Hunger Sunday is November 2. The most needed items this month are:

Tuna, pinto beans, black beans, chili, cereal, pasta, rice, crackers and oatmeal
Donations can be left in or near the Loaves & Fishes bin next to the Mission Council table.
Thank you!

What A Difference It Makes! Pastor's Discretionary Fund

For over a decade, Knox has had this fund to assist members by members. When times of crisis, change and financial need arise, your generosity has enabled the Pastors to offer support to members in need.

One thing we are sure of....life brings the unexpected and one day anyone of us may find ourselves in a difficult financial situation that requires a quick response. Your pastors are able to help members in a quiet and anonymous way through the gifts to this fund.

Here's how your generosity makes a difference:

Utility bills

Medical costs and prescriptions

Transportation needs

Scholarships

Counseling and legal fees

Moving costs

Winter clothing needs

Gas and food needs

Car repairs

Educational support

Rental costs

Infant needs

The list is as long as the individual needs that emerge. During the holidays each year, a small gift bag is offered to unemployed members. There is a letter of encouraging words and scripture, prayers and gift cards to help enjoy the holiday season.

Thank you again for years of support and care. As we enter this holiday season, we hope you will consider a gift to the Pastor's Discretionary fund. Every gift contributes a gift!

Here is how you can help:

Earmark your donations for PDF and put in the offering or give to our Financial Treasurer, Rita Eagleson. You can also give online by logging into your KnoxConnections account, select an amount for your gift, and then choose the fund of your choice.

Something New At Knox - The Online Prayer Team

Be a part of the prayer ministry of Knox!

More than anything else, we receive requests for prayers. It is an important and hopeful experience to know that you or your loved one is being lifted in prayer in a consistent way. It is meaningful and uplifting to offer prayers for others. Each of us grows in our relationship with God this way.

Sign up by emailing Diane Heintz at dheintz@knoxpres.org to receive a weekly email with the list of prayer concerns and then find time in your own busy schedule to be part of a much larger prayer effort. Prayer cards are also available on Sundays at the sanctuary entrance.

Ireland Anyone?

Why a trip to Ireland some may ask? Yes you've heard of the beautiful Emerald Isle, with 50 shades of green to be seen on a daily basis. When the weather is good and the horizon is far and wide... this is a breath taking land of fertile fields, mounding hills, winding roads, plunging cliffs and rocky shores, sheep and shepherds and villages filled with the warm, witty, welcoming Irish people! But there's much, much more!

Ireland is a place of great spiritual birth and renewal. Did you know that the Irish evangelized Scotland and Scotland evangelized much of the US during it's formation as a country? The Irish Celtic tradition under girded our Reformed heritage with theology, prayers, hymnody and symbolism. Take for example our Celtic cross which stands tall outside Knox and is also a part of our beautiful stained glass window in the sanctuary. What does it all mean?

We hope you'll want to learn more by joining us on November 13 for our Hall of Famers program starting at 1 pm. We will talk about our special Knox trip - "In search of Celtic Christianity". You will also enjoy some breathtaking pictures that will help to tell the story. Please call Diane at the church office to RSVP 630-355-8181 or email dheintz@knoxpres.org.
