

A LETTER FROM REV CLINT

The Promise of Pentecost

Have you ever waited for a cherished promise to come true?

According to the Gospel of Luke, Christ bade his followers to wait in Jerusalem for the gift of the Holy Spirit. He said, "Behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you, but wait in the city until you are clothed with power from on high" (Lk. 24:49).

And so they did, praying in the Temple each day and breaking bread with each other "with glad and generous hearts" (Lk. 24:51). On the fiftieth day since their Passover with the Lord, they came together "with one accord in one place" (Acts 2:1). Then the Spirit of God swept through their hearts like a mighty wind, sending them clothed with the power of love out to the very ends of the earth. After twenty centuries of holy history, the church is still being "sent," and is still clothed with power from on high—even at 1105 Catalpa Lane.

As a vital congregation that is richly blessed, we can afford to be "of one accord in one place." We can afford to come together, not in spite but because of our many differences, to discern God's will for our church.

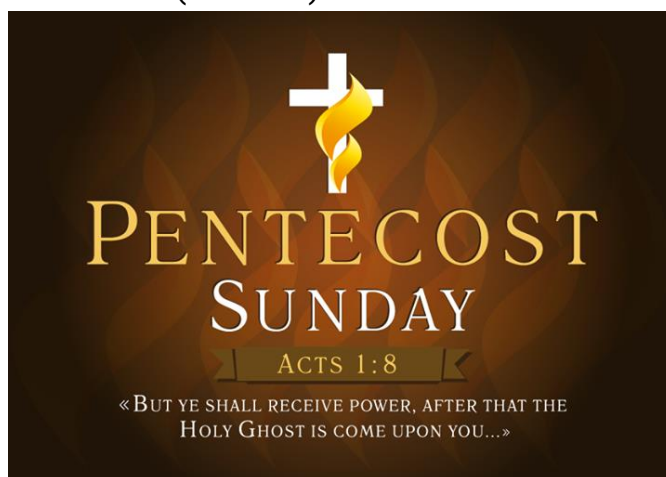

We can pray about, and talk about where Jesus Christ is calling us as his chosen disciples to bear witness to his resurrection.

When people asked Peter on that first Pentecost, "What shall we do?" he told them to repent, be baptized and they would receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. "For the promise is for you, and for your children, and for all that are far off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call" (Acts 2:37).

Knox is a long way from that first Pentecost, both in distance and time. God's promises are not. They are here for us and for our children. They will be here tomorrow as well. Take joy in the fullness of God's love for you! May we all in the days and weeks ahead wait on the Spirit to clothe us "with power from on high" and to send us forward "with one accord."

Because God always keeps his promises.

Rev. Clinton

Hall of Famers

Thursday, May 5, 2016 – 12:00 p.m.

(this date is a week earlier than our usual schedule)

Please plan to join us for our last Hall of Famers Luncheon for the year.

We will have a box lunch ready for you to enjoy in Lehman Hall in preparation for our program featuring actress Leslie Goddard (see below) who will portray Amelia Earhart, the first female pilot to fly across the Atlantic Ocean. Many of us will remember Leslie's enactment as a Titanic survivor at Hall of Famers last April.

Worship and Communion will be held in the chapel at 11:30 a.m. before lunch at noon.

Please call Diane Heintz in the church office (630-355-8181) to make reservations. Cost is $7.00

Leslie Goddard as Amelia Earhart

Amelia Earhart's courageous exploits and spirited personality made her an international celebrity in the early twentieth century. In this lively living-history program, meet Amelia and learn about her experiences as the first woman to cross the Atlantic by airplane (1928) and the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic (1932). She'll describe how she learned to fly, what inspired her adventurous spirit, and why she set off in 1937 for an around-the-world flight.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering. Our 2016 contributions totaled $5,647.81.

Thank you from Jeneane Ryan

Dear Knox family,

At the memorial service for my sweet husband, Tom, I found the beautiful Peace Lilly from my Knox family . . . how fitting for that one and only flower to be in the center of His altar as we said our final goodbyes. There was no way that I could not feel wrapped in ours and His love. Then a week or so later, I received a card from the Knox staff. Oh my! Please thank EVERYONE for the card and their precious words of love and support and for the beautiful flower. Please let my whole Knox family know how much I love and miss them and that their prayers are making each day just a little easier. I am so very thankful for this extended family.

I hope to make it back to Naperville this summer and will hope to visit Knox. Thank you for your words and prayers.

Hugs,

Jeneane
