

A PRAYER FROM REV DEB

A Prayer for Summer

God of wonders,
Whom earth cannot contain,

We thank you for this season of sun and warmth, rain and growth, bright nights and gentle breezes. We celebrate with renewed appreciation, your good gifts of verdant countryside, fruit and flowers, clouds that puff and sail in skies of blue.

May we drink in, with cool refreshment, all that you provide in earth and sky. We are called into your creation where our thirsty spirits are quenched by nature's colors and chorus, it's beauty to behold.

Make us grateful stewards of this glorious land. Instill within us a season of renewed healing.
May we take in, like a deep filling breath, the calm of your creating presence.

We offer our prayers for your world; where it is scarred and parched, where it is overrun and overwhelmed, Where it is unclaimed or uncared for.

We offer praise and thanksgiving for our life with you. Amen.

Prayer and You

Why do you pray?
What do you pray about?
When do you pray?
Where do you pray?
Whose job is it to pray?
Does it make a difference?

We 'pray' at Knox that we are a House of Prayer; praying together, praying for the world, praying for one another. So often the knowledge that others are praying with and for us is just enough to see us through a long night, a difficult season or an uncertain future.

We pray that our prayers make a difference in God's world where there is so much wonder and so much need. We pray that we our prayers are heard and received by God.

We pray that we are united in Spirit with our Lord and with others and thereby strengthened for life.

Join us in prayer -

Few things are more central to who we are and how we proceed at Knox than the gift of prayer. It is central to all we do together.

Will you become a prayer partner?

Join us online or join our Prayer Team that meets every week.

THANK YOU

Thank you from the Roberts/Chandler Family

The sudden illness of my mother, Haroldine Chandler, due to a perforated colon and emergency surgery called me to California multiple times in the last 2 months. Many of you met my mom during many visits and many heard me speak of her faithful, encouraging qualities. She lost her valiant fight for life June 1. My brother, my dad and I were all together and able to be with her. I am so very grateful to Knox for the opportunity to see her through this part of life's journey.

There are times such as this that words simply fail. But yours didn't! You're continued prayers, inquiries, cards, emails, texts and phone calls were sustaining to me, my family here and in California. I thank you for your outreach and care! Many have asked if I will have a memorial here at Knox for her and we have decided to do that. "Little Haroldine" was a faithful student of scripture, hymnody and sacred music.

We are establishing a memorial in her name for the purchase of new music to be employed by our Directors and enjoyed by all our congregation.

Again, heartfelt thanks.

Deb and Clinton

Thank you from the Hubbard Family

Thank you for all your love and support during this difficult time in the loss of my mother. You have surrounded my family with your prayers and in some of my loneliest of moments I could feel your prayers pressing in on me. We have received so many signs of support over the past few months. Thank you to the Deacons who helped with my mother's beautiful memorial service. Thank you to the Knox Staff, Children's Ministry Council and the many volunteers who kept things running here at Knox in Children's Ministries while I was travelling back and forth to be with my mom in her final two months. I am humbled and forever grateful.

"Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. If one person falls, the other can reach out and help..." Ecclesiastes 4: 9-10

Jenny Hubbard

Children's Day Out gives an extra special Thank You to Kedra Smith and Dave Olson for sharing their talents with our children. CDO wanted to create a piece of art for the hallway and through Kedra's creativity and Dave's craftsmanship a very special work of art was brought to life. The children loved getting their hands and feet painted and watching throughout the day as their masterpiece was created. Everyday when the children arrive they stop for a moment to find their hand and say, "Look what I made!" If you haven't seen it please take moment to enjoy the cross as you go down the stairs into Fellowship Hall. Thanks again to Kedra and Dave!

Our church received a beautiful "Thank-You" letter on behalf of the Presbyterian Mission Agency for our generous gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing this year. Thank you all who were able to donate to help: the Presbyterian Hunger Program, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and Self-Development of People. We invite you to learn more about how your gifts are helping the lives of others, by visiting the website: presbyterianmission.org/SpecialOfferings.
