

A LETTER FROM REV CLINT

All Good Gifts

"All that is good, all that is perfect, is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow caused by change." -James 1:17

Dear Friends,

Last month, a number of us from Knox flew to Germany, to learn more about the gift of Martin Luther on the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. On the way there, our night-flight took us far north to the tip of Greenland, which we could just make out far below us, limned in silvery light. High above, Polaris blazed away unchanging as the Big and Little Dipper circled slowly round and round. In a world full of changes, it was comforting to reflect on what--and who--does not.

It seems like a lot of things right now are in a precarious state of alteration. The earth quakes. The seas bring forth cyclones of prodigious power. The skies open, releasing deluge and flood. The land burns with wildfire. And if this were not enough, "Our earthly rulers falter...the swords of scorn divide," as G.K. Chesterton famously observed more than a century ago. It's no wonder we're all wondering, "What's next?"

When change and uncertainty come shaking the doorknob of our spiritual house, I take great solace from the silent sermons of a starry sky. There stands the North Star, unmoving, while all the constellations wheel around him like partners in some stately ballroom procession. I reflect upon the truth that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever" (Heb. 13:8). And as I look up, the stars above me bear witness to the One who made them: "Our Father, who art in heaven"--from whom every good and perfect gift comes down.

This month of November is our time to reflect upon--and give thanks for--those manifold gifts of the Spirit which both equip and direct our living. These gifts are more precious than anything the world can give because they bring to us spiritual blessings like sunlight at morning and songs in the night. And (as St. Paul so famously told us) the greatest of these good gifts are faith, hope and love (1 Cor. 13:13).

Join us in worship this month as Knox celebrates All Good Gifts with a sermon series on the astonishing power of "the greatest of these..." Come with your own gifts of gladness and generosity as we gather on Thanksgiving Sunday, November 19, to pledge our support for the work of our church. In a world of change, the Gospel message points like a compass-needle to Jesus Christ, the light of the world. And when we pray, the Spirit will change us more and more into the likeness of our Lord as we unwrap and open these heavenly presents: our steadfast faith, indomitable hope and undying love.

Blessings on you,
Clint

"Christmas Card Prison Ministry" for Companions Journeying Together

Again this year, we are inviting women from many churches in Naperville to join Knox to "bring hope to people in prison this Christmas!" Please bring a friend with you! Come Monday, November 13 from 9am to noon on the middle school room at Knox. We will be addressing and signing Christmas cards to be sent to prisoners in Illinois and beyond.

How can you help? As always, the need for STAMPS is great! A large quantity of Christmas cards has been donated already but if you received free cards in the mail or have cards purchased, you can still donate those. If you have extra Christmas wrapping paper, gift boxes, bows or ribbon bring it along. They are wrapping gifts as a fundraiser, and can use your donations! There will be coffee, treats and fellowship...plus hearing founder Jana Minor share how much these cards make a difference in prisoner's lives. She will also talk about other programs and the concept of "restorative justice".

What if you can't come and want to donate STAMPS or Christmas paper, gift boxes or ribbon, please bring it to Knox Mission Table to the right of the coffee bar and put it in the Big Christmas Box! For questions please call or text (Mimi) Mary Ellen Neumeister 630-408-1553. Please feel free to attend any (or all!) of the addressing cards sessions at the churches in Naperville that are listed below:

Tues. Oct. 31 9:00-noon - St. Thomas The Apostle - Senior Center

Mission projects to designate include: The Pastor's Discretionary Fund, Loaves & Fishes Community Services, The Scott Moreau Fund, The Lehman Foundation Fund, and The Anne Sherren Scholarship Fund. You set the amount of your donation and either place it in the offering plate or give it to our Financial Administrator – Michal Baker. Those signing by December 17 will be acknowledged in the Christmas Eve bulletin.

Donations are accepted immediately, but the card will be posted November 26 until New Year's Day. Can you think of an easier way to send over 500 Christmas Cards? Contact Anne Sherren at 630-932-0481 with questions.
