

A Letter From Rev Clint

“I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection...”

(Philippians 3:10)

Dear Friends,

Spring has officially arrived, but its reality is at best theoretical. No doubt it has arrived, in fact in places like Carolina (where nothing could be finer). But in Illinois, our world-view remains turgid, muddy and morose. The idea of springtime persists, however, like a vision of bluebells carpeting the earth beneath the oaks at Knoch Knolls, a cherished promise waiting to come true. All that's missing are the bluebells themselves...

When Paul, awaiting his end in chains outside of Rome, speaks of the Lord—he urges us to rejoice in him. Paul considers his present circumstances not in light of their danger or sorrow but in light of his prevailing hope and desire. This and this alone will drive his life's priorities from this moment on.

One of the great truths about the human spirit is that we are defined by what we hope for far more than what we have. Take away our health, our possessions, our youth, and we will continue to be defined by what we believe in. Not only that, but the content of our hope will bring to us a power and influence far beyond our present limitations. Consider how the love of one grandparent can change the trajectory of an entire childhood. Or how the vision of one leader can change the trajectory of nations. This is precisely why Paul says, “I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection.”

Knowing Christ is knowing that we are altogether loved, forgiven and accepted beyond anything we have done or failed to do. Knowing Christ is knowing that our love for one another is the greatest, most enduring aspect of our lives. Knowing the power of his resurrection forms the content of our hope; a glorious future that infuses our present circumstances with joy. The power of his resurrection is something we are meant to experience today, when with knowledge and love, we come to believe in Jesus' promise to prepare for us a place in the Father's house (John. 14:3). We're not there yet, but our hope has already shifted our point-of-view: from loss to anticipation; from resignation to expectancy; from regret to rejoicing.

Spring may still be a matter of imagination in Illinois. But as you approach another Easter, may the power of the promise fulfilled on Calvary for you bring to your living both “strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow.” The Lord is Risen. May this be our sure and certain hope!

*With Joy,
Clint*

Lent Sermon Series- Reading Philippians During Lent

(based on the book by Max O. Vincent)

Knox will be observing Lent from a perspective of joy as we use Paul's letters to the Philippians to explore the spiritual discipline of following Jesus Christ.

April 7: "Joyful Asceticism"

Jenny Hubbard, M-div.

"Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord." –Philippians 3:1

We do not have to sell everything we have, leave our families, and go to the desert like the early monastics to live the asceticism that Paul believes forms the heart of Christian living. Paul asks us to practice an asceticism that confronts whatever would get in the way of us pursuing Christ.

Palm Sunday: "Joyful Giving"

Rev. Clinton Roberts

"I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me."

–Philippians 3:1

We give as a joyful response to what God has done in our lives... we forget that giving is a joyful way to respond to God's grace at work in us and to join God in work around the world.

HOLY WEEK

Maundy Thursday: April 18 - 7:30 pm in Lehman Hall

Maundy Thursday Communion "This is my Body" Mark 14:12-50

The recognition of this time with Jesus and his disciples in the upper room is built upon Jesus' commandment (mandatum in latin) to "love one another as I have loved you". Jesus demonstrates compassionate love in washing his disciples' feet. He teaches them to serve others with the same loving humility. Their celebration of the Passover Meal has become our Lord's Supper.

Prayer Vigil

Begins at 8:30 pm in The Chapel after 7:30 service and ends Good Friday at 7:30 pm) We invite people to sign up in the Commons for 30 minute time slots as a way of keeping vigil in prayer, with Christ, for Christ and because of Christ having entered our world.

Good Friday: April 19 - 12:00 noon in Sanctuary
Good Friday Service "That We May See and Believe" Mark 15:16-39

We may always wonder how Good Friday got its name given that this was the day Jesus died. It becomes 'good' as we understand why Jesus dies...to take upon himself our sin and to offer us the gift of abundant life.

Easter Sunday: Sunday, April 21
6:30 am Sunrise Service at Veteran's Park
9:00 am & 11:00 am services at Knox

"He is Risen!" Mark 16:1-8

*Resurrection! The lasting gift of Eternal Life! Let the church bells peel and the people rejoice!
He is risen, risen indeed!*

Cash Management Note

We did it, Knox!

On March 8th, the small mortgage on the church was paid off thanks to your contributions to our Capital Stewardship Campaign!

Eliminating this mortgage will save us $35,000 per year in mortgage payments. Big or small, every contribution helped us reach our goal. Additional contributions will now be used to pay down the remaining mortgage.

Many thanks to all Knox members who have contributed to the Capital Campaign!

Safety & Security

Please know that all doors are locked during Children's Day Out, (Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday 9:30 am-12:30 pm). Please use the doorbells at both door #1 and door #2 for entry into the building. Thanks so much for your understanding.

Spring is Here! It's Time Again to Clean Your Closets!

Fill-A-Truck Sunday is May 5th

Knox will sponsor and host the Wayside Cross Ministries truck for our 11th Annual "Fill-A-Truck" Sunday. Our Knox family has been faithful servants to the residents of Wayside Cross and filled the truck every year for the past 10 years. The men and women of Wayside Cross thank you.

Clean your closets, dresser drawers, and storage areas. Give the men and women of Wayside Cross your outgrown or gently used clothes along with baby accessories, small furniture items. Even ripped or torn clothing is turned into $$$ by recycling to organizations that provide clothing to third world countries. Begin organizing your donations now to help bring on feelings of spring.

Your donation will help serve hundreds of people with meals, clothing, and lodging. Your clothing will either be distributed through the Community Outreach Program or turned into $$$ for WCM in the Hope Chest Resale Store.

If you have something larger, arrangements can be made for pick-ups of furniture or appliances, by calling Wayside Cross Ministries at 630-892-4239 or filling out the form on the WCM website, www.waysidecross.org. If you have any questions about this event or Wayside Cross Ministries, call Gary McGregor at (630) 926-2603.

May 7th is Master's Touch Friendship Dinner

Master's Touch is the oldest of Wayside Cross' 6-ministries which provide Bible Based, Christ Centered transitional residency for over 100 men year-round. Knox Mission Council has sponsored two tables in past years, at no charge for individuals who would like to attend this annual fundraiser event.

This dinner will be at Gaslite Manor, 2485 Church Road in Aurora, with the doors opening at 6:00 PM. The guest speaker this year is Dr. Michael Easley, who served as the 8th President of Moody Bible Institute and is a gifted pastor and leader during the past four decades.

Sign up for those interested in attending will be in the Commons between services on April 14th and April 21st. If you would like more information, please contact Bob Badertscher at (630) 768-8547.

Companions' Mother's Day Prison Ministry Project 2019

Your gifts support ministries of disaster response, refugee assistance and resettlement, food for the hungry, and community development that helps people find safe refuge, start new lives and work together to strengthen their families and communities!

Thank you for your generous gifts to these vital ministries. - Your Mission Council

Volunteer To Help At Hesed House!

Why do you serve at Hesed house? During my 20+ years here at Knox, I've been asked this question several times. Each time I serve with others at hesed house I find new opportunities to share God's love and compassion with the residents. Most recently I served on first shift which puts you in the most contact with the women, children and men that come for a hot meal and a warm bed. Second shift is when most of the residents are sleeping and we make lunches for the next day.

And third shift is our chance to make breakfast and wake folks up with a warm smile and a warm egg casserole, coffee and sausage. But it's more than serving food and sharing a smile, for me it is hope given and hope received. It is the hope that perhaps one person's night or day or week is made just a bit more bearable in order to continue the journey!

It is the hope that we help folks break out of a system where they find themselves powerless and even stuck. That's why I like to serve, how about you? Will you join me? I hope so!!

MankIND Men's Ministry Bed Brigade For Homeless Veterans On May 5

On Sunday, May 5, MankIND Men's Ministry, in partnership with the Midwest Shelter for Homeless Veterans, looks to host a bed brigade at Knox Presbyterian to raise funds for beds and bed frames and collect donations of new bedding sets for vets in need.

For more than three years, the men of MankIND have delivered more than a hundred beds and bed linens to military veterans throughout the Chicago area and northern Illinois. We look to continue this much needed ministry with the active support of Knox members.

Members may participate by making a cash donation to the ministry at any of our services that weekend or donate at knoxpres.org by logging into your Knox account and selecting Men's Ministry from the dropdown menu. A donation of $250 funds one complete mattress, frame and all the bedding the vet needs for a good night's sleep. Members may also participate by purchasing the bedding directly and filling a laundry basket with pillows, sheets, and/or comforters in sizes full or queen and then delivering their purchases to the sanctuary during either service on May 5.

Baskets will be distributed initially during our April 7 services and will be located in the Commons area for pickup until May 4.

Thank You

Thank you

A thank you is extended from Family Life, one of our churches in Sisseton.

A group of members were on a mission trip to the Philippines departing from O'Hare. They appreciated being able to sleep at the Church before their flight left. They were so pleased to be greeted by Knox people who took them to the airport and delivered their cars. Our church is so wonderful friendly. A special thanks goes out to Ron Mobley, Randy Johnson and Ross and Carolyn Lorenz for making it happen.

Thanks Julie Milldrum
